Wainwright Men Excused From Jury Service

Six prospective jurors, of the panel of 42 summoned by Sheriff John Rae for service at the January sitting of the supreme criminal court which opened Monday, were excused from duty after supplying what the court considered good and sufficient reasons.

All asking to be excused were from points outside the city.

The first, a farmer near Fort Saskatchewan, stated he was caring for a bunch of steers and had no one to help him.

"Don't you think you are wasting your time and money feeding them?" Mr. Justice Ives asked with a smile. "I suppose I am," the man replied as laughter swept the courtroom.

The second juror asked to be excused on the grounds of operating a dray business at Wainwright.

"Can't you get someone to do your work?" the court inquired.

"Yes, but my family will not be supported while I am here," the man replied. He was excused.

A third stated he was a railway watch inspector and his presence was required at all times in his shop in case railwaymen came in for their required inspection.

The court allowed him to go.

Another told the court he was operating a furniture store for his father, who is ill, and might have to close the store if he were detained in Edmonton. Mr. Justice Ives excused this man also.

The fifth said he was suffering from an attack of boils on the back of his neck and a doctor had told him he would require rest for several days.

"If you were on a jury we might get a quick verdict," his lordship remarked. "You are excused," he added.

The sixth was not present but Sheriff Rae presented a letter to the court which stated the man was sick in bed.—Edmonton Journal.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. E. Martin and family wish to express their heartfelt thanks to their many kind friends and neighbors for all their help and sympathy in their sad bereavement and for the floral tributes, also Rev. Huston for his kindness.

CLEAR LAKE

At the Arm Lake school meeting held on Saturday, Mr. H. C. Mockford was re-elected to the position of trustee. The meeting was well attended by the parents and others interested. A general discussion was held on the questions of school inspection, rate of taxation in the two municipal districts, term examinations and the date of reopening the school which was set for February 1.

Mrs. Bouchier of Ribstone Lake had the misfortune to break her ankle while out walking. After spending a few days in the Wainwright hospital she has returned to her home and the ankle is mending nicely.

Mrs. Herbert of Clear Lake entertained for a number of the young people on Monday evening. Everyone present had a very enjoyable time.

United Church Young People Hold Banquet

A banquet was held by the United Church young people, at the church Wednesday evening, Jan. 11, as the termination of a membership drive contest. The Red group, lead by Bob Trewartha, was the winning side, and so was the guest of the White side, whose leader was Rev. Zook.

The banquet was an elaborate affair with very suitable decorations done by Miss Lois Mabey. The program was conducted by the Reds and consisted of a guitar and ukulele duet by the Hausfeld sisters and two rather impromptu hospital scenes enacted so realistically the audience shuddered. The evening ended with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the Reds hope the Whites will challenge them to another contest. They like banquets.

St. Thomas Anglican Church Notes

The W.A. held their annual meeting at the vicarage last week. Reports of the year's activities were given by the officials of the various departments. Nearly a thousand dollars was handled by the W.A. during 1932. This money was disposed of by paying the organist's salary; social service received a generous donation, as did also the organ fund, the Synod assessments, the Sunday school, vicar as did also the organ fund, the Synod child was clothed, the altar supplied with flowers for festival occasions, fruit supplied to the sick, etc. For the election of officers the vicar took charge of the meeting, and commended the auxiliary for their services rendered both to the church and to the vicarage. Officers for 1933 are: President, Mrs. C. T. Lally; first vice-president, Mrs. H. H. Bradley; second vice-president, Mrs. Alex. Adams; secretary, Miss B. Love; treasurer, Mrs. Hart; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. Frank McLeod; Junior W.S. superintendent, Mrs. H. H. Bradley; Little Helpers secretary, Mrs. George Arkwright; hospital convener and visitor, Mrs. Milner; delegates to diocesan W. A. conference, Mrs. Lally, Mrs. A. Adams, with Mrs. C. N. Bateman as substitute. Plans were made for a series of whist drives.

The St. Thomas Junior W.A. held their annual meeting at the vicarage on Monday afternoon last when Mrs. C. N. Bateman took charge of the meeting. This little organization, which started last March with Mrs. H. H. Bradley as its leader, accomplished quite a little. A substantial parcel of dolls, books, games and toys were sent to the Social Service, $5.00 given by S. S., by post, and $50 to the church organ fund. Election of officers was taken by ballot: Secretary, Gladys Lismore; treasurer, Eileen Graham; visitors, Florence Bradley and Hazel Armstrong. Six girls won the silver badges for attendance: Elsie Arkwright, Eileen Graham, Phyllis Montgomery, Audrey Bradley, Jean Rutherford and Dorothy Winslow. These badges will be presented at the Junior W.A. service which is to be held on Sunday morning, January 22, at 11:00 a.m., when all parents and friends are particularly requested to be present.

The St. Thomas church parochial meeting was held in the Masonic hall on Monday evening last when a large representation was present. The Rev. C. N. Bateman was in the chair and Mr. C. Lally was the recording secretary. Reports from every department of the church were given, and all showed sign of progress. The financial statement as given by Mr. R. Robertson showed a deficit of only $50. Vestry elected for the new year are as follows: Vicar's warden, Mr. R. Robertson; peoples warden, Mr. C. T. Lally; vestry, Messrs. Mayor Forster, Lismore, Clipston, J. Barr, C. Lally, M. Cardell and Milner. Refreshments were served by the W.A., after which a short program and a few dances were enjoyed.

The St. Thomas A.Y.P.A. held its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank McLeod on Tuesday evening last, when the officers elected were: President, Mr. J. Barr; vice-president, Mr. John Alderman; secretary, Mr. Cliff Bradley; treasurer, Miss Kathleen Hart. Plans are being made for a big novelty dance at the Elite theatre on Valentine's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Colman were visitors to Edmonton over the weekend.

F. E. McLeod went up to Edmonton Sunday evening and returned home on Tuesday.

IRMA-WAINWRIGHT

The Irma team visited Wainwright last Saturday and met the local team in a good game. The lineup was as follows:

Irma: Goal, H. Sharkey; defences, W. Mitchell and G. Fisher; centre, F. McGuire; forwards, D. Sharkey and E. Bruno; subs, R. McGuire, S. Howard and J. Guibra.

Wainwright: Goal, I. Pigeon; defences, J. Mitchell and V. Ganderton; centre, P. Stuart; forwards, C. Tory and K. Tory; subs, J. Collett, D. Wallace and R. Ott.
The score: 6-3 in favor of Wainwright.

Young People of United Church Present Program

The Young People of the United Church, on Sunday night, Jan. 8th, took charge of the evening service at the church and presented a program for the adults.

Ed. Turner, president, was chairman for the evening. Jane Thomas and Wallace Prosser, each read part of the Scripture, and Rev. Zook, former chairman of the Devotional department, gave the prayer.

Special music was given by Edith and Margaret Steele, Ed. Turner and Bob Trewartha, in the form of a quartette. This was followed by a short Biblical play "The Gift," given by members of the group.

Those taking part in the play were Joel, a little lame boy, Vera Hausfeld; Gabriel and Martha, playmates of Joel, Eleanor Fish and Jean Dunsmore; Father Melachi, an old invalid, Helen Tory; Hulda, the woman with whom Joel lives, Edithbeth Zook; a stranger, a blind man, June McNally.

Florence Tory very ably directed the play, which was appreciated by all those who saw it. The entire service was done in a very suitable manner, and Rev. Huston expressed his thanks to the young people for their support.

Hold 'Kids Party'

The A.Y.P.A. held a "Kids Party" at the home of Mrs. Frank McLeod on Monday evening. Dolls, toys, dogs, race horses, trains, etc., were all fondly handled by the girls, who were much betribboned and wore very short dresses. The boys in short socks, short pants and bare legs, big ribbon bows, ston collars, etc., spent a very pleasant time playing with their toys on the floor. Children's games and a programme, with dainty refreshments made up a most enjoyable evening.

Coming Events

Valentine dance in the Elite theatre, Wainwright, Tuesday, February 14th.

COURTESIES OF THE ROAD

Courtesies of the road have been extended by most drivers ever since the automobile was invented, and it has been a pleasure to the writer to render assistance to motorists in trouble as we come upon them on the road. Last Saturday night, during the storm, we were stalled in the snow only about five miles from Wainwright and obtained a team to pull us through the worst of the snow drifts. After we were out, another driver hooked onto our car and started for Wainwright, but got stalled in another short drift. Five other cars came up behind and four or five men gathered around our car, and one of them deliberately unhooked the chain that connected our car to the one ahead of us, and, when asked what he was doing, stated that "they were going to leave our car there," and that is about what happened. We asked two or three of the drivers of those cars to pull us in to town and all refused. The farmer who had assisted us in getting out of the snow said that he couldn't leave us there and started with his team and our car for Wainwright. After we had made about a mile, a truck came up from behind, and when we asked the driver to pull us in to Wainwright, he said, "Sure," and he deposited our car right at our door. Thank you.

Now, as near as we can learn, some of those five car drivers were from Irma and were bringing the Irma hockey players to Wainwright to play. Possibly there was another excuse for their being in a hurry to reach Wainwright, but nevertheless it would have been a matter of life and death that would have caused the writer to have left an unfortunate motorist out in a storm like that.

We will continue to extend the courtesies of the road.

SYDENHAM

The Sydenham patrol of Boy Scouts wish to thank the school board for their courtesy in giving the Boy Scouts permission to use the school for the purpose of putting on whist drives and dances to swell the patrol funds. It is anticipated that the first whist drive and dance will be put on in the near future.

A disastrous fire occurred about 3 p.m. on Monday the 16th on the farm of Mr. P. Brassard. Fire broke out in the garage and workshop through an unknown cause. Mr. Brassard was in town at the time of the fire and, therefore, nothing was able to be saved. The loss, besides the building, which was totally destroyed, includes several sets of harness, implements, tools, a washing machine, and sundry clothing. The truck was in town and was not damaged. Luckily, the fire did not spread to other buildings, which would have resulted in a further loss. It is thought possible that a heater stove which was in the garage may have become overheated and caused the fire. No insurance is in understood was carried.

Miss S. Merrick is in the local hospital with a bad attack of the flu. There will be a meeting of the Scouts on Saturday the 21st at 2:30 p.m. in the school. All the Lions are requested to be there as special work will be performed.

Although the wind has blown many of the side roads full of snow, the main roads still remain open.

One Wedding In Six to End in Divorce Courts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Divorces in the United States have increased to such an extent that, if present trends continue, one of every five or six marriages of the present year will ultimately have their marriage broken in the divorce court, the president's research committee on social trends, appointed by President Hoover in 1929, says in its report, made public today.

The report on the three-year inquiry, which contains a foreword by President Hoover, is termed in the news release accompanying it a "veritable yesterday, today and tomorrow of American life."

The investigations were financed by the Rockefeller foundation of New York. The findings, in their entirety, are to be published in two volumes (1,663 pages) under the title "Recent Social Trends in the United States."

Immigration restriction and birth control, the report states, are slowing up population growth so that we may have a stationary population in the United States before the end of the century, with the proportion of children growing less. This, the report notes, will create the problem of smaller markets.

Divorce Increase Cited

The declaration concerning divorce is contained in a section devoted to "The Family." It says: "The various functions of the home in the past served to bind the members of the family together. As they weakened or were transferred from the home to outside agencies, there were fewer ties to hold the members, with a consequent increase of separation and divorce." The prediction of one out of every five or six marriages in the present year ending in divorce follows and the report continues: "These facts suggest as does a projection of the divorce curve that our culture may be conducive to further increases in divorce unless programs are instituted to counteract this tendency."

Two great departments of the American system, the report says, the governmental organization and the economic organization, are growing at a rapid rate, while two other historic organizations, the church and the family, have declined in social significance, although not in social values.

"Many of the problems of society today," the report continues, "occur because of the shifting roles of these four major social institutions. Church and family have lost many of their regulatory influences over behavior, while industry and government have assumed a larger degree of control."

Discussing the declining rate of population growth, the report states: "As our statisticians look further into the future they see possibilities of still greater declines in growth with the probability of a stationary population. Such a prospect is radically different from that predicted a generation or even a decade ago."

In the section concerned with "Quality of Population," the research committee, dealing with the practical possibilities of improving a people by conscious selection and "breeding for desirable qualities," cites numerous obstacles to such a course and then, in a manner that has become characteristic of recently appointed national research groups, presents this remarkable finding: "If conscious control of selection now seems remote, it should be remembered that selection is continually occurring nonetheless, and that a policy is demanded."

AUBURNDALE

The Autumn Leaf Dramatic Society entertained several of the young married couples on the occasion of their first meeting of the New Year, in Autumn Leaf school, Wednesday night. After the regular business, the club entertained with songs, readings, games and contests. After luncheon everyone joined in a lively sing song. The Society plans on staging the play "Are you A Mason?" early in March.

The regular meeting of the U.F.W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hetherington, last Thursday. The roll call was responded to by the history of familiar place names. Plans were made for a economic organization, are growing at a rapid rate, while two other historic organizations, the church and the family, have declined in social significance, although not in social values.

"Many of the problems of society today," the report continues, "occur because of the shifting roles of these four major social institutions. Church and family have lost many of their regulatory influences over behavior, while industry and government have assumed a larger degree of control."

Royal Bank of Canada Presents Strong Statement

CASH ASSETS 164 MILLION DOLLARS

"CANADA HAS MAINTAINED HER CREDIT UNIMPAIRED"

Sir Herbert Holt Deals Vigorously with Railway and other national problems—Emphasizes need for Government Economy—Impartial Conference—Canadian Business Conditions—International Outlook.

Mr. M. W. Wilson reports on satisfactory year's operations—Central Bank Discussed—Measures needed for business recovery.

The Sixty-fourth Annual Meeting of The Royal Bank of Canada marked the close of a very successful year. The Statement submitted showed the Bank to be in a very strong liquid position. Of the Total Assets of $765,512,920 the Liquid Assets amounted to as much as $355,929,915, and were equal to 52.86 p.c. of all Liabilities to the Public. An outstanding feature of the Liquid Assets was the large holding of Cash Assets, which reached a total of One Hundred and Sixty-Four Millions.

The Annual Meeting brought together a large number of shareholders, and was marked by interesting and instructive addresses by Sir Herbert Holt, the President, and Morris W. Wilson, Vice-President and General Manager.

Vigorous comment and suggestions as regards several of the outstanding domestic problems of Canada, and an able summary of the world economic situation and the prospects ahead; a strong plea for the amalgamation of the two Canadian railroads, as the only manner in which the grave Canadian railway situation can be solved; intervention by the provincial governments to conserve Canadian natural resources, and to prevent the collapse of the vitally important newspaper industry, if the present strong efforts being made to secure co-operation are not successful, and a condemnation of excessive governmental expenditure, featured the address of the president.

Sir Herbert said in part: "The power of resistance which this country has shown during the third year of the depression is cause for congratulation. With no financial assistance from other countries other than a small amount of re-financing, which was arranged on a strictly business basis, with currency depreciation in terms of gold limited to a very moderate percentage, and with none of the restrictions on foreign trade which have been found inevitable in so many cases, Canada has lived up to the letter of her contracts and maintained her credit unimpaired. In doing so she has followed the tradition of the British Empire as a whole. It is no exaggeration to say that the stability and soundness of the Empire's Banking institutions have played an important part in the creation of this good record."

Price Restoration

"On previous occasions we have stressed the importance of restoring the world price structure to approximately 1924-28 levels. I remarked last year that such action was essential if the present deflation is to be liquidated in an orderly manner, pointing out that deflation had been carried to extremes and that anti-deflation measures were urgently required. Unfortunately, price levels continued to fall until the end of June, and the rise which commenced at that time has since been cancelled. The decline for the year, as indicated by the United States Bureau of Labor Index will be, apparently, about 7 per cent, which compares with 13 per cent. in 1931 and 17 per cent. in 1930. The best that can be said is that the rate of fall was appreciably less than in previous years."

Railway Problem

In referring to the report of the Royal Commission on Transportation, Sir Herbert expressed the opinion that co-operation between the two railroad systems to effect mutual economies will not prove drastic enough to cut down in any adequate degree the annual deficits of the government railways, and expressed the conviction that the solution lay in complete amalgamation. He felt fears of a monopoly were groundless and that under proper safeguards unification would result in a co-ordinated transportation system adequate to the needs of the country and conducted at a minimum of expense.

Government Expenses

"For many years, Government expenditure has been on an excessive scale. Extravagance has characterized the budgets of national, provincial and municipal governments. Throughout the country there is a general demand that budgets be balanced and every effort made to lighten the heavy burden imposed upon the people by reducing the unduly heavy taxation."

"There is a noteworthy duplication of Government in Canada which leads to the excessive cost of administration. We must seriously consider whether this country can afford to maintain as many as nine Provincial Governments, together with the Federal Government, each with an elaborate organization. The whole population of Great Britain is governed by a single parliament which finds time to legislate, not only for all internal matters, but also for those which concern the Empire as a whole."

Reviewing the Imperial Conference at Ottawa, Sir Herbert said that the material achievements attained were a triumph for Mr. Bennett and his Government.

"I have full confidence in the character of our people and of our institutions, and without minimizing the importance of the problem that must be dealt with, I look to the future with increasing optimism."

The wind subsided and the mercury gradually rose to around zero. Wednesday was quite mild. Light snowfall Wednesday evening. Thursday morning 15 below, bright and clear.

The fire department was called on on Saturday last and extinguished a fire in a small house near the golf course, which belongs to Mose Stang. The fire originated in the chimney, and in spite of the strong wind at the time, the department soon had the fire under control. Very little damage resulted.

 The danger of fire is greatest during severe weather. The largest number of fires start from defective chimneys. The mortar between the bricks becomes loose and falls out, leaving a crack through which sparks are blown by heavy winds, igniting the dry lumber and paper. To avoid this inspect your chimney often, clean out the soot and see that the stove pipes are renewed and properly fastened. After you take all precautions, carry sufficient insurance. See Jos. Welch, local insurance agent.

I. S. McLeod of McLaughlin is spending a few days in Wainwright, visiting with his brother, F. E. McLeod.

Mrs. N. Ricker, who has been at the bedside of Laurence Ricker at Edmonton since October, arrived home last week. We are pleased to learn that Laurence is on the road to recovery. He is now able to walk unassisted. He is in the care of J. A. Kelley, the "Wonder" man with the X-ray eyes.

 Maybe your family is increasing and you cannot afford to build a larger house. At the lowest cost in years, you can now finish your attic or add a room or two. The winter is the time to plan this work. The Atlas Lumber company is in a position to assist you. Jos. Welch, local manager.

Fire Chief Renville commenced making his annual inspection of chimneys this week.

The lecture on Ben Hur given by Rev. W. H. Zook, at the Elks theatre last Sunday night, was well attended. The young people of the United Church will reproduce the play they gave at the church on Sunday night, Jan. 8, at the theatre this coming Sunday night, Jan. 22, which will constitute the main part of the program. There will also be special music. All are welcome.

Wainwright Municipal Hospital News

Eunice Bowers, Wainwright, was admitted on January 13 for an operation.

Household Hints

By Betty Barclay

Going about the house without shoes just before retiring is a dangerous habit. There is always the possibility of stepping upon a pin, tack, needle or other sharp object. Splinters lurk in old-fashioned wooden floors. Sprained or broken toes are caused by misplaced furniture. Wear your shoes or thick-soled slippers until you are ready to get into bed.

Mixed silk and wool socks have deservedly grown in popularity for winter wear in recent years. Always buy a half size larger than you regularly wear, for when washed they will shrink.

To prevent the annoyance of moisture on eyeglasses when going from a cold into a warm atmosphere, moisten the tips of the fingers and rub them over a cake of soap; then rub them over both sides of the lens and polish as usual. Only one application every day or two is necessary. Cold cream or vaseline is also good; clean well afterwards with tissue paper.

Roasting pans will not be so hard to wash if the inside surface is well greased with a piece of suet or with lard before the roast is put in.

To keep the baby covered on cold nights sew a double piece of tape on each corner of the blankets long enough to tie around the corner rods of the crib; tie the ends of the tape loosely to the corner rods of the crib and the blankets will remain in place no matter how the baby kicks or moves about.

Plain egg custard is made more delicious by adding stoned dates before baking.

The Junior Cook

Here is a recipe that I want all my junior cooks to try. It is really delicious and I know that every member of the family will be delighted with it. Here is the recipe; be sure to follow directions very carefully.

Do You Know That—

During the Christmas holidays the free circular, "Christmas Candles for Gifts," was so popular that it was necessary to have three runs? The making of candy is so interesting that this week we have prepared another circular entitled "Candies." This circular also contains many choice recipes and will be sent to any reader for a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
